

FREE ANZAC EXHIBITION

Dear Educators,

Free tickets are now available to Australia's largest travelling exhibition, the Spirit of Anzac Centenary Experience. The interactive exhibition displays over 200 artefacts from the Australian War Memorial, which tell the story of our nation's involvement in the First World War. The exhibition is showing in Bunbury at the Eaton Recreation Centre from 11 - 16 January 2017.

As the Bunbury Experience falls during the summer school holidays, we encourage your school to attend the Experience at the Perth Convention and Exhibition Centre from 29 November - 11 December 2016.

BOOK TICKETS NOW

The experience presents students with an invaluable once-in-a-lifetime learning opportunity, whilst bringing to life both primary and secondary curriculums. After visiting, teachers are supported with learning materials which enable them to further explore the exhibition in the classroom.

"I thought it was absolutely brilliant, the fact it was interactive, the use of technology, it was very appropriate for my students. I'd wholeheartedly endorse teachers taking their students to see this exhibition." – Teacher, Newtown Primary School, Hobart

"This exhibition is the most interactive and realistic history lesson ever. It's a must-see event, you'll be totally moved with emotion." - Visitor, Wollongong

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Your school may wish to advise students and parents in your school newsletter that they can book their own visit to the Spirit of Anzac Centenary Experience at www.spiritofanzac.gov.au

Please follow the Spirit of Anzac Centenary Experience on social media.

   #spiritofanzac

SELL-OUT EXPERIENCE! BOOK YOUR FREE TICKETS NOW