

POSITIONS VACANT

HEALTH PROMOTION OFFICERS

Responsibilities:

- Assist in developing resources for promoting health at school level
- Develop health awareness and empower students to make healthy choices
- Assist to run courses and workshops
- Produce leaflets, posters, brochures and power points to aid health promotion in the school environment

Contracts and Working hours:

- Short term contracts available
- Before or after school hours - to be negotiated with successful students.

Skills:

- Ability to network effectively so that you can talk to a range of people
- Leadership skills and the ability to motivate and influence others in their health decisions
- Creativity
- Photocopying and laminating skills
- Computer skills
- Reliable and punctual

What to expect:

- Work will be office based and supervised by the School Health Nurse

Salary: Set targets achieved will be rewarded

Start Date: Term 3 2018

If you are interested in influencing the health choices that students make please apply –

Application forms from Student Services. Please return to School Health Nurse Sam Curtis.

References from Teachers required