

TUESDAY 18 JUNE

The Notre Dame Symposium

9.45am	Registration and Morning tea
10am	Welcome to Notre Dame
	Politics & Law	Philosophy & Ethics	Accounting & Finance	Economics
Session 1 10.10am	The politics of human rights in Australia Jamal Barnes	Are Facebook friends really friends? Richard Hamilton	The digital checkout service where “take now and pay later” is growing rapidly in Australia Gerry Kelly	The visible hand versus the invisible hand – Price ceilings Greg Moore
Session 2 11.05am	Big mouths, big money, big trouble: What are the appropriate limits on the implied freedom of political communication? Adam Jardine	Can men and women be friends? Richard Hamilton	Ethics unplugged – Exploring ethical decision-making in business Derek Parkin	The visible hand versus the invisible hand – Price floors Jane Harrison
12pm	Lunch
Session 3 12.40pm	Thinking aloud Are animals people? Personhood and its implications for animal rights.
Session 4 1.30pm	Looking to the future Alumni Stories
2pm	Close

For further information please contact Michael Wade: 08 9433 0535 / michael.wade@nd.edu.au

Venue: The University of Notre Dame Australia, Fremantle Campus

Notre Dame. Natural critical thinkers.

Visit notredame.edu.au