

Mums Raising Teen Boys

Do you... Sometimes feel challenged in your relationship with your teenage son?

Are you... Interested in gaining useful tips and practical parenting information?

If so... this evening workshop is for you!

As the primary female role model in a boy's life, mothers play an important role in the development of their son's identity including their ability to be nurturing. For teenage boys in particular, this on-going relationship with their mothers has long term implications. This in turn affects how they relate to others, particularly to girls and women.

Discussed in this workshop

- the importance of the mother-son relationship
- what boys need from their mums
- practical ways to improve and maintain a positive and rewarding relationship
