

NOMINATION FOR SCHOOL BOARD MEMBERSHIP

As an Independent Public School our School Board plays a key role in the governance and accountability processes we have developed, to continually improve.

The school Board is to be comprised of the Principal along with community, parent and teacher representatives.

To nominate for a position on the School Board, please complete the nomination for election form below and return it to the school. Positions are for a duration of 2 years. Please forward your nomination to Susan.Kerr@education.wa.edu.au.

Please find below a brief overview of the Roles and Responsibilities of School Boards.

I encourage all interested parents to apply and invite them to contact me should they require any additional information.
